

The Ethics of Shareholder Disputes: When is it okay to go for the throat?

March 11, 2010, 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

Newman Center Main Lounge

700 S Morgan, Chicago, IL 60607

James Voigt

James is an Associate Attorney at Lavelle Law, Ltd. His areas of practice include New Business Formations, Corporate Maintenance, Commercial Real Estate, Corporate Dissolutions, Commercial Leases, and Short Sale Negotiations.

Prior to working for Lavelle Law, James attended Benedictine University and graduated with a degree in Management and Organizational Behavior. He then attained his J.D. from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago Illinois.

His philosophy is that an attorney must pour excellence into every word spoken, every phrase written, and every argument made. James believes we are hired for our ability to bring tangible, positive change into the lives of clients. This requires an unbending attention to detail, unwavering commitment to quality, and willingness to listen attentively to each client in order to understand his role in helping them solve their problems and achieve their goals.

As an undergraduate student, James served as Co-Chair of the Youth Plenary Committee of the Parliament of the World's Religions. While serving on the Board of Directors of the Corporate Law Association at the John Marshall Law School, James created and organized the first annual Francis J. Morrissey Corporate Ethics Awards. He is currently an active member at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Naperville, and works with the African mission program there. James is also the acting chairman of the Chambernet Networking chapter of the Palatine Chamber of Commerce.
