ETHICS IN BUSINESS & HONOR CODE IN THE CBA

Tuesday, Sept 7, 2010, 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

Newman Center Main Lounge

700 S Morgan, Chicago, IL 60607

Anthony Pagano, PhD

Anthony M. Pagano is an Associate Professor of Management at the UIC. He is a well respected professor of Management who guides his students through semester projects of evaluating local company's codes of corporate social responsibility. He teaches management courses which bring a perspective on ethics and corporate social responsibility. He is co-author of the book, "The External Environment of Business: Political, Economic, Social, and Legal".

Robin Brierton

Robin Brierton is the Assistant Dean to the Undergraduate Programs. The CBA Honor Code states that we are "committed to providing an environment in which teaching, learning, research, and scholarship can flourish and in which all endeavors are guided by academic and professional integrity. All members of the community-- students, faculty, staff, and administrators-- share the responsibility of ensuring that high standards of integrity are upheld so that such an environment exists."

The main objective of this lecture is to understand the wide spread prevalence of cheating and it's implications to an individual's integrity and character. The student will be asked to sign the CBA Honor Code.

Registration is mandatory and limited to the first 200 registrants!

Registration Begins at 12:00am Monday, August 30

You must sign up by MIDNIGHT Sep 6th to appear on attendance list.
